

With the last of the big shows finishing this month we are glad to say its time for a rest, for a week or two anyway. They ranged from the top end of Scotland to South view down the road, with a buying trip to Ireland in the middle and school half term. Busy, busy, busy!!!

Ingliston Scottish Pony of the Year Show(14-17/10/10)

A long trek up to Ingliston Show Centre proved a great time for our team. Having never been there before we arrived to excellent facilities and a friendly welcome.

With good placing on day one with all, day two was even better.

Dinki Diva and Emily Ward First 138cm Grand Prix

Emos Jessie and Emily Ward Third 138cm Grand Prix

Rockingham Shadow and Emily Ward Sixth 128cm Grand Prix

Barton BSPS Winter Show (29/10/10)

Whilst Emily and Nick were off at the English HPI Kelly was off to sunny Barton for the first winter show with a bunch of babies, as we only had one eligible rider Kelly rode the others round for experience and Abby rode her own Novice Piers who went like a pro despite being only four years old.

Noble Boularouge and Abby Schofiled First Novice Int WH

South View England HPI

Emos Jessie and Emily Ward First 128/138 handicap

Sligo Lucky and Emily Ward Tenth Grand Prix

.....to follow.....

□ Borris

On a sad note Kelly had Borris (The Barsteward) put to sleep this week. He was eighteen years old and had been with us since a four year old and launched kelly into Horse Workers. He qualified for RIHS and HOYS nine years on the run being placed nearly every year and finishing Reserve Champion at RIHS and Third at HOYS twice.

He lived out a happy retirement at home baby sitting youngsters.
